

Stefano Scabbio

President Mediterranean & Eastern Europe ManpowerGroup

 @stefanoscabbio

In February 2015, Stefano Scabbio was appointed President of Mediterranean and Eastern Europe. In this role, Stefano is responsible for Austria, Bulgaria, Croatia, Czech Republic/ Slovakia, Greece, Hungary & Slovenia, Israel, Italy, Portugal, Romania, Serbia, Spain, Switzerland franchise and Experis and Turkey. Stefano also leads European Sales and Marketing is the Manpower brand leader for Europe.

Stefano joined ManpowerGroup in 2003 as Financial Director of Italy. He was appointed Managing Director of ManpowerGroup Italy in 2006 and was named President in 2007. In 2008, Stefano became a member of the EMEA Strategic Executive Team, and in 2010, with the newly created Southern Europe Region, his role expanded to Regional Managing Director of Italy and Iberia.

In November 2014 Stefano became President of Assolavoro, the Italian Association of Private Employment Agencies. He has been a member of the Board of Bocconi University Alumni Association since 2009, and was recently appointed Vice President. Stefano is the past President and a current Director of Junior Achievement Italy.

Before ManpowerGroup, Stefano was Chief Financial Officer for Esselunga Group, a large supermarket retail group with annual revenues of around 9 billion Euro.

Stefano has a Degree in Economics and Business Administration from Bocconi University in Milan – Italy, and has completed courses at INSEAD and the International Institute for Management Development. He is fluent in four languages: English, French, Spanish and Italian.

Stefano established LincMagazine, a ManpowerGroup newsletter that focuses on the economy and labor market in Italy and is the author of books including: Genesis reform: the new labor market in Italy, 2012, The Formula: Institutions, economy and society, 2010, and Work in Progress, 2008.

Learn more about Stefano here.